Sheedy's Vaudeville.

Yesterday was a busy day at Shoe-dy's, as the Auditorium was trowded at both shows, and the large crowds theroughly enjoyed the new moving pictures shown and the very polite vaudeville show offered. The Ramsdell Sisters and Ramsdell are a very his feature and they are a decided hit with their artistic dancing and latest songs offer the neatest and most pleasing turn ever put on at the Auditorium. Manny Worth is another hig favorite, head a hig recention on every having had a big reception on every and dialogue are most amusing. Juniper and Hayes are also well liked, and Geo. Devere with banjo selections and paro-dles closes a corking good show.

BREED THEATER.

Big Roman Tragedy, "Virginius," In Moving Pictures.

To the levers of the classic the splendid moving picture of "Virginius," the great Roman tragedy, proved to be one of the hits of last night's big bill one of the hits of last night's big bill at the Braed theater, and the profound interest displayed in its portrayal was only equalled by the spontaneous applause at its conclusion. In the beginning every character is shown separately, handsomely posed, correctly clad and plainly named, so at the beginning of the tragedy the audience is fully acquainted with each and is able to follow them during the close action of the exciting situations. The Taming of the Shrew is a sumptuous presentation of Shakespeare's play of the same tion of Shakespeare's play of the same name: many liberties have been taken name; many liberties have been taken, but not to mar the spirited action. The costuming is really magnificent and the setting equally so. The Old Schoolmaster is a preity story of school life with somewhat unusual incidents. Thompson's Night With the Police and Sweet (?) Liberty are two very funny films and keep the audience nearly convulsed all the time.

blessing of the sky.

The right of a frozen clime.

The harshness of an untaught ear.
The lasting words of one whose rayme
Beat often Labors hurried time.

Or Duty's rugged march through storm and strife, are here.

Of mystic beauty, dreamy grace,
No rounded art the lack supplies;
Unskilled the subtle lines to trace,
Or softer slades of Nature's face,
I view her common forms with us
anointed eyes.

Yet here at least an earnest sensy
Of human right and weal is shown.
A hate of tyranny intense.
And hearty in its vehemence.
As if my brothers pain and sorres were my own.

A DEEP SEA BALLAD.

Sea wrohing have a jolly time. They sing Nep-tunes all day. They play upon the trumpet-fish And feed sea cows with hay.

They watch the starfish act in play, And clap their clammy hands. The mussels on their brawny arms Stand out like iron bands.

If they swear like the devilfah, In picker'ell they'll burn; But if they learn to school themselves, To angel fish they'll turn. —N. Sallsbury, in the Behemian,
